10.2 The Buyer is to insure the Property from the date of this Contract. The Seller will, however, maintain its existing buildings insurance until Completion and will not be obliged to lay out any insurance proceeds in reinstatement.

11. Overage

11.1 On Completion the parties will enter into the Overage Agreement, under which the Buyer will covenant to pay to the Seller 30% of the increase in the open market value of the Property attributable to the grant of any planning permission for residential development of all or part of the Property within four years of Completion.

14. Limitations on the Seller's liability

14.1 The Seller is not liable in respect of any claim under the warranties in clause 13 (a "Claim") unless the Buyer has given the Seller written notice of the Claim, stating in reasonable detail the matter giving rise to it, on or before the date 12 months from Completion.

14.2 The Seller is not liable in respect of a Claim: (a) unless the amount of that Claim exceeds £15,000; and (b) unless the aggregate amount of all Claims for which the Seller would otherwise be liable exceeds £50,000, in which case the Seller is liable for the whole amount and not merely the excess.

14.3 The total aggregate liability of the Seller in respect of all Claims under this Contract is limited to, and will in no circumstances exceed, an amount equal to the Purchase Price.

14.4 The Seller is not liable in respect of any Claim to the extent that the matter giving rise to it was within the actual knowledge of the Buyer, or was fairly disclosed in the replies to enquiries or the documents supplied to the Buyer before the date of this Contract.

17.1 This Contract, together with the documents referred to in it, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all previous agreements, understandings and arrangements between them, whether written or oral, relating to its subject matter.

17.2 Each party acknowledges that in entering into this Contract it does not rely on, and has no remedy in respect of, any statement, representation or warranty (whether made innocently or negligently) that is not set out in this Contract, save that nothing in this clause limits any liability for fraud.

18. Third party rights

18.1 Save as expressly provided, a person who is not a party to this Contract has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of its terms.

19. Assignment
