2. Whitmore Thermal Components Limited, a company incorporated in England and Wales (registered number 07744120) whose registered office is at Whitmore Works, Brockhall Road, Sheffield S9 2TG (the "Company"), each a "party" and together the "parties".

BACKGROUND

The parties wish to explore a possible transaction involving the acquisition by Ardenfield (or a member of its group) of the entire issued share capital of the Company (the "Purpose"). In connection with the Purpose each party may disclose Confidential Information to the other. This Agreement sets out the terms on which such information is to be treated.

1. Definitions

1.1 "Confidential Information" means all information (whether written, oral, electronic or in any other form) disclosed by or on behalf of the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party in connection with the Purpose, including the existence and status of discussions, financial information, customer and supplier lists, technical and product information, business plans and the terms of any proposed transaction.

1.2 "Disclosing Party" means the party disclosing Confidential Information and "Receiving Party" means the party receiving it.

1.3 "Representatives" means, in relation to a party, its directors, officers, employees, professional advisers and prospective financiers and their respective advisers.

2. Obligations of confidentiality

2.1 The Receiving Party shall keep the Confidential Information confidential and shall not use it for any purpose other than the Purpose.

2.2 The Receiving Party may disclose Confidential Information only to those of its Representatives who need to know it for the Purpose, and shall ensure that each such Representative is made aware of and complies with the obligations in this Agreement.

2.3 The Receiving Party shall apply at least the same degree of care to the Confidential Information as it applies to its own confidential information of similar importance, and in any event no less than a reasonable degree of care.

3. Exceptions

Clause 2 does not apply to information which: (a) is or becomes publicly available other than through breach of this Agreement; (b) was lawfully in the Receiving Party's possession before disclosure; (c) is lawfully obtained from a third party free of any confidentiality obligation; or (d) is required to be disclosed by law, regulation or any court or competent authority, provided that (where lawful) the Receiving Party gives prompt notice to the Disclosing Party.

4. Return or destruction

On written request the Receiving Party shall promptly return or, at the Disclosing Party's option, destroy all Confidential Information and any copies, save that one copy may be retained to the extent required by law or bona fide internal compliance procedures.

5. No representation; no obligation to proceed

Neither party makes any representation or warranty as to the accuracy or completeness of the Confidential Information. Nothing in this Agreement obliges either party to proceed with the Purpose or any transaction, and either party may terminate discussions at any time.

6. Non-solicitation

For 12 months from the date of this Agreement neither party shall solicit for employment any senior employee of the other with whom it has had contact in connection with the Purpose, save that general advertising not specifically targeted at such persons is permitted.

7. Term

The obligations in this Agreement continue for two years from the date of this Agreement, save that the obligations in respect of any Confidential Information constituting a trade secret continue for so long as that information remains a trade secret.

8. Governing law and jurisdiction

This Agreement and any dispute arising out of or in connection with it are governed by English law, and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
