6. Settlement and waiver of claims

12. The Employee accepts the terms of this agreement in full and final settlement of all claims which he has or may have against the Company or any Group Company arising out of or in connection with his employment or its termination, including (without limitation) claims for unfair dismissal, wrongful dismissal, breach of contract, unlawful deduction from wages, discrimination, and any claim under the Working Time Regulations 1998, but excluding the excepted claims at clause 6.2.

13. The waiver in clause 6.1 does not apply to: (a) any claim to enforce this agreement; (b) any claim in respect of accrued pension rights; or (c) any claim for personal injury of which the Employee is not aware and could not reasonably be aware at the date of this agreement.

7. Post-termination restrictions

14. In consideration of the payments in clauses 3 and 4, the Employee reaffirms the post-termination restrictions in clause 11 of the Service Agreement, save that the Non-Compete Covenant shall apply for a period of 9 months from the Termination Date in place of the period stated in the Service Agreement. The client non-solicitation, non-dealing and senior-employee non-solicitation covenants continue to apply for 12 months from the Termination Date.

15. The Employee confirms that he has not, and will not before the Termination Date, solicit or accept any business from, or solicit any employee of, any Group Company in breach of those covenants.

8. Confidentiality and announcements

16. The Employee will keep confidential the existence and terms of this agreement and the circumstances of the termination of his employment, save as required by law or to his immediate family and professional advisers. The parties have agreed an announcement in the agreed form at Schedule 1, and neither party will make any statement inconsistent with it.
