8 Type of claim

I am making the following claims: (a) automatically unfair dismissal because I made protected disclosures (s.103A Employment Rights Act 1996); (b) ordinary unfair dismissal (s.98); (c) detriment for making protected disclosures (s.47B); and (d) direct age discrimination (Equality Act 2010).

8.2 Details of claim

I was employed by the Respondent from 2 March 2009, latterly as Group Operations Director. Between July and November 2025 I raised three written health-and-safety concerns about manual-handling and load-securing arrangements at the Coleshill and Wakefield sites following the integration of the Helix Logistics operations. On 19 December 2025 I was told my role was “under review” and that a substantially identical Chief Operating Officer role would be advertised externally. I presented a grievance on 9 January 2026. I believe that the decision to remove me from my role was made because I had made those protected disclosures and/or because of my age (58). I claim that any dismissal is automatically unfair and/or unfair and discriminatory. I reserve the right to provide further particulars.

9 What do you want if your claim is successful?

Compensation (including for loss of earnings, pension and benefits, and injury to feelings) and a declaration. I do not seek reinstatement or re-engagement.
