3.1.1 the Principal Rent, payable by equal quarterly instalments in advance on the Rent Payment Dates, the first payment (apportioned if necessary) being due on the Rent Commencement Date;

3.1.2 the Service Charge, payable in accordance with Schedule 4;

3.2 All rents are to be paid by banker's standing order or other method the Landlord requires, without deduction, set-off or counterclaim (except as required by law).

3.3 If any of the Annual Rent is not paid within 14 days of the due date, the Tenant is to pay interest on that amount at 3% above the base rate of the Landlord's bank from the due date until payment.

3.4 The Tenant has paid to the Landlord a rent deposit of £124,195 plus VAT to be held under a rent deposit deed of even date.

4. TENANT'S COVENANTS

4.1. Repair and condition

4.1 The Tenant is to keep the Premises in good and substantial repair and condition, except that the Tenant is not obliged to put or keep the Premises in any better state of repair than that recorded in the Schedule of Condition, and is not liable for damage by the Insured Risks (except where the insurance is vitiated by the act or default of the Tenant).

4.1 The Tenant is to keep the Premises decorated and to redecorate the interior in the last year of the term and in any event every fifth year, in a good and workmanlike manner.

4.2. Alterations

4.2 The Tenant is not to make any structural or external alteration to the Premises. The Tenant may make internal, non-structural alterations to the Premises with the prior written consent of the Landlord, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

4.2 The Tenant is to carry out any permitted works in accordance with a licence for alterations and the CDM Regulations and is to remove them and reinstate the Premises at the end of the term if so required by the Landlord.

4.3. Use

4.3 The Tenant is to use the Premises only for the Permitted Use and is not to use them for any purpose that is illegal, immoral, or that causes nuisance, damage or annoyance to the Landlord or other occupiers of the Building.

4.4. Alienation

4.4 The Tenant is not to assign, underlet, charge, part with or share possession or occupation of part only of the Premises. The Tenant is not to assign the whole of the Premises without the prior written consent of the Landlord, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld, and the Landlord may require, as a condition of consent, that a guarantor of acceptable standing guarantees the assignee's obligations where the Landlord reasonably considers the assignee's covenant to be insufficient.

4.4 The Landlord and the Tenant agree, for the purposes of section 19(1A) of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1927, that the Landlord may give consent to an assignment subject to a condition that the assigning Tenant enter into an authorised guarantee agreement in respect of the assignee's obligations.

4.4 The Tenant may underlet the whole of the Premises with the prior written consent of the Landlord (not to be unreasonably withheld) on terms that the underlease is excluded from the 1954 Act, contains no fine or premium and reserves a rent not less than the open market rent and subject to upward-only review.

4.5. Statutory and other obligations

4.5 The Tenant is to comply with all statutes and the requirements of any competent authority relating to the Premises and the Tenant's use of them, and to pay all rates, taxes and outgoings assessed on the Premises.

4.5 The Tenant is to permit the Landlord and those authorised by it to enter the Premises on reasonable prior notice (except in emergency) to inspect their condition and to carry out works to the Building.

4.6. Costs and indemnity

4.6 The Tenant is to indemnify the Landlord against all liabilities, costs and claims arising from any breach of the Tenant's covenants and from the use or occupation of the Premises, and to pay the Landlord's costs of and incidental to any application for consent (whether or not granted) and any breach of covenant.

4.7. Yielding up

4.7 At the end of the term the Tenant is to yield up the Premises with vacant possession in the state and condition required by this Lease, having removed its alterations (if required) and its fixtures and fittings and made good any damage caused.

5. LANDLORD'S COVENANTS

5.1 The Landlord covenants that the Tenant, paying the rents and performing its covenants, may peaceably enjoy the Premises without lawful interruption by the Landlord or any person claiming through it.

5.2 The Landlord is to keep the structure, exterior, roof, foundations and Common Parts of the Building, and the service media serving the Building generally, in good and substantial repair, the cost being recoverable through the Service Charge.

5.3 The Landlord is to provide the Services in accordance with Schedule 4 and to insure the Building against the Insured Risks for its full reinstatement cost.

6. INSURANCE

6.1 The Landlord is to insure the Building against the Insured Risks and is to apply insurance proceeds in reinstating the Building, subject to obtaining all necessary consents.

Whitfield Carter LLP is a limited liability partnership registered in England and Wales (OC418827). Confidential and may be legally privileged.

6.2 If the Premises are damaged by an Insured Risk so as to be unfit for occupation, the Principal Rent and Service Charge (or a fair proportion according to the extent of the damage) are to be suspended until the Premises are again fit for occupation or until the expiry of any loss of rent insurance period, whichever is the earlier.

6.3 If the Premises have not been reinstated within three years of the date of damage, either party may determine this Lease by notice, and the insurance proceeds belong to the Landlord.

7. GUARANTEE

7.1 The Guarantor covenants with the Landlord, as a primary obligation, that the Tenant will pay the rents and perform its covenants, and that the Guarantor will indemnify the Landlord against any failure by the Tenant to do so.

7.2 If this Lease is disclaimed, the Guarantor is to take a new lease of the Premises for the residue of the term then unexpired on the same terms, if the Landlord so requires by notice within six months of the disclaimer.

8. FORFEITURE

8.1 The Landlord may re-enter the Premises (and this Lease will then end) if the Annual Rent is unpaid 21 days after becoming due (whether or not demanded), if the Tenant breaches any of its covenants, or if the Tenant is subject to an event of insolvency. This clause is without prejudice to any other right of the Landlord, and forfeiture is subject to the statutory provisions relating to relief.

9. TENANT'S BREAK RIGHT

9.1 The Tenant may determine this Lease on the Break Date by giving the Landlord not less than nine months' prior written notice.

9.2 The break is conditional on the Tenant, on or before the Break Date, (a) paying all of the Principal Rent due, (b) giving up vacant possession of the whole of the Premises, and (c) paying to the Landlord a sum equal to three months' Principal Rent (plus VAT) as a break penalty.

9.3 On the Break Date this Lease determines but without prejudice to any claim by either party for any earlier breach. Any rent paid for a period after the Break Date is to be refunded to the Tenant.

10. RENT REVIEW

10.1 The Principal Rent is to be reviewed on each Review Date to the open market rent determined in accordance with Schedule 3, on an upward-only basis, so that from each Review Date the Principal Rent is the higher of the rent previously payable and the reviewed rent.

11. MISCELLANEOUS

11.1. Notices

11.1 Any notice under this Lease is to be in writing and is to be served in accordance with section 196 of the Law of Property Act 1925.

11.2. No implied easements

11.3. Exclusion of the 1954 Act

11.3 The Landlord and the Tenant confirm that, before this Lease was entered into, the Landlord served a notice under section 38A(3) of the 1954 Act and the Tenant (or a person duly authorised by it) made the appropriate declaration, and that the provisions of sections 24 to 28 of the 1954 Act are excluded in relation to the tenancy created by this Lease.

11.4. Third party rights

11.4 A person who is not a party to this Lease has no rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of its terms.

11.5. Governing law and jurisdiction

11.5 This Lease and any dispute arising out of it are governed by the law of England and Wales, and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.

SCHEDULE 1 — THE PREMISES AND RIGHTS

Part 2 — Rights granted

(a) the right to pass and repass over the Common Parts for access to and from the Premises; (b) the right to use the lifts, staircases and lavatories serving the Premises; (c) the right to use the loading bay and the goods lift at reasonable times; (d) the right to the passage of utilities and services through the service media; (e) the right to use up to 6 designated car parking spaces in the Building's car park; and (f) the right to display the Tenant's name on the Building directory board.

SCHEDULE 2 — RESERVATIONS

There are excepted and reserved to the Landlord: (a) the right to the passage of services through the service media; (b) rights of entry to inspect, repair and carry out works to the Building on reasonable notice; (c) the right to build on or alter the remainder of the Building provided that the Tenant's use of the Premises is not materially adversely affected; (d) all rights of light, air and support; and (e) the right to regulate the Common Parts.

SCHEDULE 3 — RENT REVIEW

1. On each Review Date the Principal Rent is to be reviewed to the open market rent, being the yearly rent at which the Premises might reasonably be expected to be let in the open market on the Review Date by a willing landlord to a willing tenant, on the assumptions and disregards set out below, for a term equal to the unexpired residue of the Contractual Term, on the terms of this Lease (other than as to the amount of the Principal Rent).

2. Assumptions: that the Premises are available to let with vacant possession; that the Tenant has complied with its covenants; that the Premises may lawfully be used for the Permitted Use; and that any rent-free period or inducement that would be given on a letting in the open market has expired.

3. Disregards: any effect on rent of the Tenant's occupation; any goodwill attaching to the Premises by reason of the Tenant's business; and any increase in value attributable to improvements carried out by the Tenant otherwise than in pursuance of an obligation to the Landlord.

4. If the parties do not agree the reviewed rent, it is to be determined by an independent surveyor acting as an expert, appointed by agreement or, in default, by the President of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors. The review is upward-only.

Maintaining, repairing and (where appropriate) renewing the structure, Common Parts and service media of the Building; providing heating, cooling, lighting and life-safety systems to the Common Parts; cleaning and lighting the Common Parts; staffing, security and management of the Building; insurance administration; and complying with statutory requirements affecting the Building generally.

Part 2 — Service Charge mechanics

1. The Tenant is to pay a fair and proper proportion of the Service Costs, determined by the Landlord acting reasonably by reference to the net internal area of the Premises as a proportion of the lettable area of the Building.

2. The Tenant is to pay the Service Charge by equal quarterly instalments in advance on the Rent Payment Dates, on account of the Landlord's reasonable estimate for the relevant service charge year, with a balancing payment or credit after the Landlord's certificate for that year.

3. The Tenant's contribution to the Service Costs (excluding insurance, utilities consumed and the cost of complying with statute) is capped at £6.50 per sq ft of the net internal area in the first service charge year (£54,730 per annum), increasing in each subsequent year in line with the Retail Prices Index.

SCHEDULE 5 — THE GUARANTEE

The guarantee and indemnity given by the Guarantor in clause 7, including the obligation to take a new lease following disclaimer, as set out in that clause and applying for so long as the Tenant named in this Lease (or a permitted assignee for which the Guarantor has agreed to stand as guarantor) holds this Lease.
