STRICTLY PRIVATE & CONFIDENTIAL

Dear Sofia

Engagement: employment advice and proposed settlement – Gareth Hollis (Chief Revenue Officer)

Thank you for instructing Whitfield Carter LLP in connection with the proposed exit of Mr Gareth Hollis, the Company's Chief Revenue Officer, following the reorganisation of the commercial function announced on 6 November 2025. This letter, together with our enclosed standard terms of business, sets out the basis on which we will act.

Scope of work

We will advise the Company on: (i) the redundancy process and consultation in respect of Mr Hollis's role; (ii) the handling of his grievance dated 11 November 2025, including the allegation that his selection is connected to a protected disclosure made in August 2025; (iii) the negotiation and drafting of a settlement agreement under section 111A of the Employment Rights Act 1996; and (iv) the variation and enforceability of his post-termination restrictive covenants. Litigation in the Employment Tribunal, should it arise, would be the subject of a separate scope and estimate.

Team and supervision

Sarah Whitfield, partner in our Employment group, will have overall conduct of the matter and is the client partner. She will be assisted by James Osei (senior associate) and, as required, Elena Marchetti (associate). Sarah is responsible for supervising the work.

Fees

Our fees are charged on a time-spent basis at the following hourly rates (exclusive of VAT): partner £620; senior associate £430; associate £320. We currently estimate our fees for advising on the grievance, negotiating and documenting the settlement, and the covenant variation will be in the region of £18,000 to £26,000 plus VAT and disbursements, depending on the extent of negotiation. We will notify you promptly if it appears the estimate will be exceeded. We will bill monthly in arrears.

Conflicts and confidentiality

We have carried out a conflict check and are not aware of any conflict that prevents us from acting. We act for the Company alone; we do not advise Mr Hollis, who is separately represented by Ashworth

Quinn LLP. We will keep your affairs confidential in accordance with our professional obligations.

Please countersign and return the enclosed copy of this letter to confirm your instructions and acceptance of our terms of business.

Yours sincerely

Sarah Whitfield

Partner, Employment – Whitfield Carter LLP

We confirm our instructions and accept the terms of business enclosed.
