10.2 Each undertaking in clause 10.1 is a separate undertaking and is considered by the parties to be reasonable and necessary to protect the goodwill of the business acquired by the Buyer. If any restriction is held to be unenforceable but would be valid if reduced in scope or duration, it applies with such modification as is necessary to make it valid and enforceable.

11. Confidentiality and announcements

11.1 Each party shall keep confidential the existence and terms of, and negotiations relating to, this Agreement, save as required by law or any regulatory authority or as necessary to enforce this Agreement.

13.1 This Agreement, together with the documents referred to in it, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes all prior agreements, negotiations and representations relating to its subject matter.

13.2 Each party acknowledges that it has not relied on, and shall have no remedy in respect of, any statement, representation or warranty not expressly set out in this Agreement, save that this clause does not exclude liability for fraud.

14. Assignment

14.1 No party may assign, transfer or charge any of its rights under this Agreement without the prior written consent of the others, save that the Buyer may assign the benefit of this Agreement and of the Warranties to any member of the Buyer's group or to any person providing finance to the Buyer (and to any successor in title to the Shares).

15. Third party rights

15.1 Save as expressly provided, a person who is not a party to this Agreement has no right under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any of its terms.

16. Variation and waiver

16.1 No variation of this Agreement is effective unless in writing and signed by or on behalf of each party. A waiver of any right or remedy is effective only if given in writing and shall not be deemed a waiver of any subsequent breach or default.

17. Costs

17.1 Except as otherwise provided, each party shall bear its own costs incurred in connection with the negotiation, preparation and execution of this Agreement.

18. Notices

18.1 Any notice given under this Agreement shall be in writing and delivered by hand, by pre-paid first-class post or by email to the address or email address of the relevant party set out in this Agreement (or as otherwise notified).

20.2 Each party irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales to settle any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with this Agreement.
