2. PROJECT INDIGO – PROPOSED ACQUISITION OF MERIDIAN QUARTER, LEEDS

The Chair reported on the proposed acquisition by the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, Halbrook Meridian Propco Limited, of the freehold office investment known as Meridian Quarter, 18 Wellington Place, Leeds, for a purchase price of £14,250,000, reflecting a net initial yield of approximately 7.0% on a passing rent of £1,065,000 per annum. The price had been negotiated down from the vendor's opening figure of £14,750,000 following due diligence and reflected the outstanding Unit 3 rent review and the Unit 5 tenant break.

3. REPORT ON TITLE AND DUE DILIGENCE

James Osei of Whitfield Carter LLP summarised the firm's Report on Title dated 28 November 2025, confirming that title was good and marketable subject to discharge of the vendor's Northbank plc charge on completion and exercise of the Company's option to tax to preserve TOGC treatment. The board noted the recommendations and that none of the outstanding items prevented exchange.

The Finance Director reported that Pennine Business Bank plc had issued a credit-approved facility of £8,550,000 (60% loan to value) on terms acceptable to the Company, to be secured by a first legal charge over the Property and a debenture over the SPV.
