each a "party" and together the "parties".

BACKGROUND

(A) The Employee was employed by the Company under a contract of employment dated 4 September 2019 (the "Contract"). The Employee's employment terminated on 19 December 2025 (the "Termination Date").

(B) The Employee has brought, or intends to bring, complaints against the Company including for unfair dismissal and for detriment and dismissal on the ground of having made protected disclosures, which complaints are the subject of early conciliation under reference R123456/26/01 and of Employment Tribunal claim number 2206543/2026 (the "Proceedings").

(C) The parties have agreed to settle the Proceedings and all other claims the Employee has or may have against the Company on the terms set out in this Agreement, which is intended to be a settlement agreement within the meaning of section 203(3) of the Employment Rights Act 1996 and the equivalent provisions of the other statutes referred to below.

IT IS AGREED as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1 In this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires: "Adviser" means Eleanor Bartlett of Ashworth Quinn LLP; the "Group" means the Company and its subsidiaries and subsidiary undertakings from time to time; the "Termination Payment" has the meaning given in clause 3; and references to a statutory provision include any modification or re-enactment of it.

1.2 Clause headings do not affect interpretation. The Schedule forms part of this Agreement. References to clauses and the Schedule are to clauses of and the Schedule to this Agreement.

2. TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

2.1 The Employee's employment with the Company terminated on the Termination Date. The Employee's P45 will be processed as soon as reasonably practicable following the date of this Agreement.

4. TAX

4.1 The Company makes no representation or warranty as to the tax treatment of the Termination Payment. The payments are made on the basis of the parties' understanding of the current law but the Employee is responsible for any further income tax and employee National Insurance contributions due in respect of them.

4.2 The Employee will indemnify the Company on a continuing basis against any income tax or employee National Insurance contributions (and any interest, penalties, costs and expenses) for which the Company is liable in respect of the Termination Payment, save for (i) any tax or NICs which the Company is obliged to deduct and account for, and (ii) any employer National Insurance contributions.
