Dear Alice

Project Cedar — proposed licensing of the LBX-Series technology

Thank you for instructing Whitfield Carter LLP in connection with the proposed exclusive licence of Larkmoor Bioscience Limited's precision-fermentation technology to Verrell Beauty Group plc (the Transaction). This letter, together with our enclosed standard terms of business, sets out the basis on which we will act for you.

Scope of work

Our engagement covers advising on and documenting the Transaction, including: (a) preparing and negotiating the non-disclosure agreement and term sheet; (b) drafting and negotiating the patent and know-how licence agreement and its schedules; (c) co-ordinating freedom-to-operate and patent-status input from your patent attorneys, Hartington IP; (d) advising on the financial terms, including the royalty and milestone structure; and (e) advising on signing and the conditions to completion. Patent prosecution and any competition-law clearance are outside this scope and would be the subject of a separate engagement.

Our team

The matter will be led by Sarah Whitfield (Partner), supported by James Osei (Senior Associate) and Elena Marchetti (Associate). Sarah will have overall responsibility for the matter and will be your principal point of contact.

Fees and disbursements

Our fees are charged by reference to time spent at the following hourly rates (exclusive of VAT): Partner £620; Senior Associate £450; Associate £330. We currently estimate our fees for the Transaction through to signing in the range of £85,000 to £110,000 plus VAT and disbursements, on the assumption of a single counterparty and a negotiation of normal complexity. We will notify you promptly if it appears that this estimate is likely to be exceeded. We will bill monthly in arrears.

Anti-money laundering and conflicts

We have completed our client due diligence and conflict checks and are not aware of any conflict that prevents us from acting. We may need to ask you for further information from time to time to comply with our regulatory obligations.

Please confirm your agreement to these terms by signing and returning the enclosed copy. We are delighted to be working with you on this matter.

Yours sincerely

Sarah Whitfield
