DATED 5 DECEMBER 2025

(1) PENNINGTON INDUSTRIES LIMITED

(2) THE SUBSIDIARY GUARANTORS

(3) STERLING COMMERCIAL BANK PLC

STANDSTILL AND RESERVATION OF RIGHTS AGREEMENT

relating to a facilities agreement dated 14 March 2022

EXECUTION COPY

This standstill and reservation of rights agreement is dated 5 December 2025 and made between Pennington Industries Limited (the “Company”), the Subsidiary Guarantors listed in Schedule 1, and Sterling Commercial Bank plc (the “Lender”).

Operative terms (summary of executed deed)

1. The Company acknowledges the Specified Defaults (breaches of the financial covenants and minimum liquidity undertaking tested at 30 September 2025) and that £41,750,000 of principal is outstanding.

2. During the Standstill Period (to the earlier of 31 March 2026 and a Termination Event) the Lender will not, solely by reason of the Specified Defaults, accelerate the Facilities, enforce the Transaction Security, or cancel any Commitment.

3. All rights and remedies of the Lender are expressly reserved; the standstill is not a waiver.

4. The Company undertakes to deliver the final Independent Business Review to the Lender by 19 December 2025, to deliver a weekly 13-week cashflow forecast, and to negotiate in good faith towards a consensual amendment and restatement.

5. The Standstill terminates on any Termination Event, including any new Default or any step towards a formal insolvency process.

6. This agreement is a Finance Document, governed by English law, with the English courts having exclusive jurisdiction.

EXECUTION

EXECUTED as a deed by PENNINGTON INDUSTRIES LIMITED, acting by Richard Pennington, a director, in the presence of a witness.

Signed: R. Pennington — Director — 5 December 2025

SIGNED for and on behalf of STERLING COMMERCIAL BANK PLC by Gavin Ross, Director.

Signed: G. Ross — 5 December 2025