Definitions

- "Completion Date" means 15 May 2026 or such other date as the parties agree in writing.
- "Tenancies" means the occupational leases of the Property listed in Schedule 1 (Tenancy Schedule).
- "Rent Deposit Deed" means the rent deposit deed dated 14 March 2023 between the Seller and Aldgate Print Services Limited in respect of Unit 2.
- "TOGC" means a transfer of a business as a going concern within the meaning of article 5 of the Value Added Tax (Special Provisions) Order 1995.

Agreement for sale

1. The Seller will sell and the Buyer will buy the Property for the Purchase Price on the terms of this contract.
2. The Property is sold with full title guarantee.
3. The Property is sold subject to and with the benefit of the Tenancies but otherwise with vacant possession of the parts not let on the Completion Date.

Deposit

4. On the date of this contract the Buyer will pay the Deposit to the Seller's conveyancer to be held as stakeholder pending completion.

5. If the Buyer does not complete in accordance with this contract the Deposit (with accrued interest) is forfeit to the Seller, without prejudice to the Seller's other remedies.

Title

6. The Property has a registered title and the Buyer accepts the title as deduced before the date of this contract and will not be entitled to raise any requisition in relation to that title.

Tenancies

7. The Property is sold subject to the Tenancies. The Seller has provided to the Buyer copies of the leases and documents listed in Schedule 1.

8. The Seller will not, without the Buyer's written consent, between the date of this contract and completion agree any rent review, surrender or variation of, or serve or accept any notice to determine, any Tenancy, or grant any new lease or licence affecting the Property.

9. Between the date of this contract and completion the Seller will manage the Property in accordance with the principles of good estate management and will account to the Buyer on completion for rents and other outgoings on the basis of an apportionment as at the Completion Date.

Rent deposit

10. On completion the Seller will assign to the Buyer the benefit of the Rent Deposit Deed and will credit to the Buyer the rent deposit of £45,000 held under it on the completion statement, and the Buyer will from completion comply with the landlord's obligations under the Rent Deposit Deed and indemnify the Seller in respect of them.

VAT and TOGC

11. The parties intend that the sale is treated as a TOGC and that no VAT is chargeable on the Purchase Price.

12. The Buyer warrants that on or before the Completion Date it will be registered for VAT, have made an option to tax the Property and notified that option to HMRC, and have notified the Seller in writing that its option to tax will not be disapplied.

13. If HMRC determines that VAT is chargeable, the Buyer will pay that VAT to the Seller within ten working days of production of a valid VAT invoice.

Completion

14. Completion will take place on the Completion Date at the offices of the Seller's conveyancer or where they reasonably direct.

15. On completion the Buyer will pay the balance of the Purchase Price (after credit for the Deposit and apportionments) to the Seller's conveyancer, the amount being adjusted in accordance with the agreed completion statement.

Transfer

16. The Buyer will deliver to the Seller a draft transfer at least ten working days before the Completion Date. The transfer will contain the indemnity covenant and the assignment of the Rent Deposit Deed referred to in clause 7.

Insurance

17. The Seller will keep the Property insured to its full reinstatement value with a reputable insurer from the date of this contract until completion and will produce evidence of cover to the Buyer on request. If the Property suffers damage before completion the Buyer may rescind only where the Property is rendered unusable for its existing use; otherwise the Seller will pay or assign to the Buyer the relevant insurance proceeds on completion.

Risk and warranties

18. The Buyer buys the Property in its actual state and condition and the Seller gives no warranty as to its condition or fitness for any purpose, save for the title guarantee and the matters set out in this contract.

19. The Buyer acknowledges that it has not entered into this contract in reliance on any representation except any made in writing by the Seller's conveyancer in replies to the Buyer's pre-contract enquiries.

Notices

20. All notices must be in writing and served on the relevant party's conveyancer; Standard Condition 1.3 applies.

Governing law and jurisdiction

21. This contract and any dispute arising out of it are governed by the law of England and Wales and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of England and Wales.
