DATED 1 SEPTEMBER 2014

EXECUTIVE SERVICE AGREEMENT

WEXFORD HOLDINGS LIMITED (1)

THIS AGREEMENT is dated 1 September 2014 and is made between:

(1) WEXFORD HOLDINGS LIMITED, a company incorporated in England and Wales with registered number 06122418 whose registered office is at Marlowe House, 4 Fenchurch Avenue, London EC3M 5BN (the "Company"); and

(2) MARTIN HALE of 14 Carlisle Gardens, London N10 3QP (the "Executive").

IT IS AGREED as follows:

1. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION

1.1 In this agreement: "Board" means the board of directors of the Company; "Group Company" means the Company, any subsidiary or holding company of the Company and any subsidiary of such holding company (sections 1159 and 1162, Companies Act 2006); "Termination Date" means the date on which the Executive's employment terminates; and "Confidential Information" means all information of a confidential or proprietary nature relating to the business, finances, customers, suppliers or affairs of the Company or any Group Company.

1.2 References to statutory provisions include any modification or re-enactment of them. Clause headings do not affect interpretation. The Schedule forms part of this agreement.

2. APPOINTMENT AND TERM

2.1 The Company appoints the Executive and the Executive agrees to serve as Chief Operating Officer of the Company on the terms of this agreement. The Executive's employment begins on 1 September 2014. No previous employment counts towards the Executive's period of continuous employment, which begins on that date.

2.2 The Executive's employment will continue until terminated by either party in accordance with clause 14. The Executive warrants that he is not subject to any restriction or obligation that prevents him from fully performing his duties.

2.3 The Executive's normal retirement date is not fixed; nothing in this agreement requires the Executive to retire at any particular age.

3. DUTIES

3.1 The Executive will be responsible for the operations, supply chain, procurement and facilities functions of the Company and its subsidiaries, will report to the Chief Executive Officer, and will perform such duties and exercise such powers consistent with his position as the Board may from time to time reasonably assign to him.

3.2 The Executive will devote the whole of his working time, attention and abilities to the business of the Company and any Group Company, will use his best endeavours to promote and protect their interests, and will comply with all reasonable and lawful directions of the Board and with the Company's policies and procedures from time to time in force.

3.3 The Executive will not, without the prior written consent of the Board, be directly or indirectly engaged or interested in any other business, save that he may hold up to 3% of the securities of any company listed on a recognised investment exchange.

4. PLACE AND HOURS OF WORK

4.1 The Executive's normal place of work is the Company's offices at Marlowe House, 4 Fenchurch Avenue, London EC3M 5BN, although the Executive may be required to travel (including outside the United Kingdom) and to work at such other places as the proper performance of his duties requires.

4.2 The Executive's normal hours of work are 9.00 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. on Mondays to Fridays, together with such additional hours as are necessary for the proper performance of his duties, for which no further remuneration is payable. The Executive agrees that regulation 4(1) of the Working Time Regulations 1998 does not apply to him.

5. REMUNERATION

5.1 The Company will pay the Executive a basic salary of £150,000 per annum, payable in equal monthly instalments in arrears on or about the 25th day of each month, which is inclusive of any fees payable to the Executive as a director of the Company or any Group Company. The salary will be reviewed annually, with any increase being at the Company's discretion; the Company is under no obligation to award an increase.

5.2 The Company may deduct from the Executive's salary or any other sums due to him any money owed by him to the Company or any Group Company.

6. BONUS

6.1 The Executive is eligible to participate in the Company's annual discretionary bonus scheme, with an on-target opportunity of up to 40% of basic salary, subject to the rules of the scheme and to the achievement of such individual and corporate objectives as the Board (or its remuneration committee) determines. Any bonus is entirely discretionary, does not form part of the Executive's contractual remuneration, and is not payable if the Executive's employment has terminated or notice has been given by either party on or before the date of payment.

7. PENSION AND BENEFITS

7.1 The Company will make contributions to a registered pension scheme nominated by the Executive (or to the Company's designated scheme) at the rate of 8% of the Executive's basic salary, subject to the rules of the scheme and to the Executive making such minimum contributions as the scheme requires.

7.2 The Executive is entitled to participate, subject to the relevant scheme rules and the insurer's terms, in the Company's private medical insurance, permanent health insurance and life assurance arrangements. The Company may alter or withdraw any such benefit on reasonable notice.

7.3 The Company will reimburse the Executive for all reasonable expenses properly incurred by him in the performance of his duties, subject to production of receipts and to the Company's expenses policy.

8. HOLIDAY

8.1 The Executive is entitled to 28 working days' paid holiday in each holiday year (running from 1 January to 31 December), in addition to the usual public holidays in England and Wales, to be taken at such times as are convenient to the Company. Not more than five days' holiday may be carried forward to the following year without the Board's consent.

8.2 On termination the Executive is entitled to pay in lieu of accrued but untaken holiday, calculated on the basis that each day's holiday is equal to 1/260th of basic salary; if the Executive has taken more holiday than accrued, the Company may deduct the excess from any sums due to him.

9. SICKNESS

9.1 If the Executive is absent from work because of sickness or injury, he will be paid his full basic salary for up to 26 weeks' absence in any period of 12 months, inclusive of any statutory sick pay, after which any further payment is at the Company's discretion and subject to any income protection arrangement in force.

10. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

10.1 The Executive will not, except in the proper performance of his duties or as required by law, during his employment or after its termination, use or disclose to any person any Confidential Information. This restriction does not apply to information that is or becomes public through no fault of the Executive, or to any protected disclosure within the meaning of the Employment Rights Act 1996.

10.2 All documents, records and materials (in whatever form) containing Confidential Information are the property of the Company and must be returned to the Company on termination or on demand.

11. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

11.1 Any intellectual property created by the Executive in the course of his employment belongs to the Company, and the Executive assigns to the Company all such rights, with full title guarantee, and will do all acts necessary to vest those rights in the Company and to assist in their protection.

12. DATA PROTECTION

12.1 The Company will process the Executive's personal data in accordance with applicable data protection law and its privacy notice. The Executive consents to the Company holding and processing personal data relating to him for the purposes of the administration and management of his employment and the Company's business.

13. DIRECTORSHIPS

13.1 The Executive will, if appointed, act as a director of the Company or any Group Company, and will resign from all such offices on the termination of his employment (or earlier if the Board requires); if he fails to do so the Company is irrevocably authorised to appoint a person to execute the necessary instruments on his behalf.

14. TERMINATION

14.1 Either party may terminate the Executive's employment by giving the other not less than six months' written notice.

14.2 The Company may terminate the Executive's employment immediately, with no payment in lieu of notice, if the Executive: (a) is guilty of gross misconduct or any serious or repeated breach of his obligations; (b) is convicted of an indictable offence (other than a road traffic offence not resulting in imprisonment); (c) is disqualified from acting as a director; or (d) commits any act of dishonesty, whether or not relating to the Company.

14.3 The Company may, in its absolute discretion, terminate the Executive's employment at any time with immediate effect by paying him a sum in lieu of notice equal to the basic salary (less deductions for income tax and National Insurance) that the Executive would have received during the notice period or the unexpired part of it (a "Payment in Lieu"). The Payment in Lieu does not include any element in respect of bonus, benefits or holiday that would have accrued during the notice period. Nothing in this clause obliges the Company to make a Payment in Lieu.

14.4 At any time after notice of termination has been given by either party, the Company may require the Executive to perform no duties, to have no contact with clients, suppliers or staff, and to remain away from the Company's premises ("Garden Leave"), during which the Executive continues to receive salary and benefits and remains bound by his obligations under this agreement. The Company may require the Executive to take any accrued holiday during any period of Garden Leave.

14.5 On termination the Executive will immediately return to the Company all property belonging to the Company or any Group Company, including documents, equipment, passes, credit cards and copies of Confidential Information, and will delete any such information held on personal devices.

15. POST-TERMINATION RESTRICTIONS

15.1 [Intentionally omitted — see clause 19.]

16. NOTICES

16.1 Any notice under this agreement must be in writing and delivered by hand or sent by pre-paid first-class post to, in the case of the Company, its registered office, and in the case of the Executive, his last known address.

17. GRIEVANCE AND DISCIPLINARY

17.1 The Company's grievance and disciplinary procedures, which are non-contractual, apply to the Executive. If the Executive wishes to raise a grievance he should do so in writing to the HR Director; if he is dissatisfied with any disciplinary decision he may appeal in accordance with that procedure.

18. ENTIRE AGREEMENT AND GOVERNING LAW

18.1 This agreement, together with any document referred to in it, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties and supersedes any previous agreement or arrangement relating to the Executive's employment. No variation is effective unless made in writing and signed by the parties.

18.2 A person who is not a party to this agreement has no right to enforce its terms, save that any Group Company may enforce clauses 10, 11 and 19.

18.3 This agreement and any dispute arising out of it are governed by the law of England and Wales, and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts and tribunals of England and Wales.

19. RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS

19.1 In this clause: “Restricted Period” means the period of 12 months ending on the Termination Date; “Restricted Business” means those parts of the business of the Company or any Group Company with which the Executive was materially concerned in the Restricted Period; “Restricted Customer” means any person who was a customer of, or in the habit of dealing with, the Company or any Group Company in the Restricted Period and with whom the Executive dealt or about whom he had Confidential Information; and “Key Employee” means any senior employee with whom the Executive worked closely in the Restricted Period.

19.2 The Executive will not, for six months after the Termination Date, be engaged, concerned or interested in any business that competes with the Restricted Business within the United Kingdom, save as a holder of not more than 3% of listed securities.

19.3 The Executive will not, for nine months after the Termination Date, solicit or endeavour to entice away from the Company or any Group Company the custom of any Restricted Customer in respect of the Restricted Business.

19.4 The Executive will not, for nine months after the Termination Date, deal with or accept business from any Restricted Customer in respect of the Restricted Business.

19.5 The Executive will not, for nine months after the Termination Date, solicit or endeavour to entice away from, or employ or engage, any Key Employee.

19.6 Each of the restrictions in this clause 19 is a separate and severable undertaking, and is considered by the parties to be reasonable and necessary to protect the legitimate business interests of the Company. If any restriction is found to be void but would be valid if some part were deleted or its period or scope reduced, it applies with such modification as is necessary to make it valid.

IN WITNESS of which the parties have executed this agreement on the date first set out above.
